Shawnee State University

By Amy M. Patrick

Shawnee State University is a public university in Portsmouth, Ohio situated on a sprawling 62 acres on the Ohio River! Shawnee State, or SSU, prides itself on its affordable tuition, low teacher-to-student ratio and variety of degree programs!

Currently, SSU has just fewer than 4,000 students with approximately 1,000 of them living on campus in apartment-like housing. Students can choose from over 80 programs and pursue an associate, bachelor or master's degree! Some of the programs available include a nationally ranked game design program, pre-med studies, nursing, business management, psychology, and sports management.

SSU's tuition is one of the lowest in the state, and there are many scholarships, grants, and financial aid available for students to assist with their costs. Plus, SSU offers both a Federal work study program, which is a need-based program allowing for on or off-campus opportunities, as well as on-campus student employment. Available to incoming 2018 freshman students is the tuition guarantee program. This will lock in the price of tuition, fees and meal plans for an entire four years.

A unique opportunity for local middle/ high school students is available through college credit plus. Available to students currently in grades 7-12, this program allows students to take classes at SSU that will count for both college and high school credits. This program is free to the students.

SSU offers plenty of things for students to do on campus which includes over 60 clubs and groups, gym, swimming pool, and planetarium (which also offers its shows free to the public).

There are multiple sports teams including soccer, baseball/softball, tennis, and track and field.

The Vern Riffe Center for the Arts is also located on SSU's campus and students can watch performances at a discounted ticket price. SSU is also just minutes to popular restaurants, a movie theatre, and bowling alley.

To learn more about Shawnee State University, go to www.shawnee.edu or call 740-347-1732 to schedule a visit.
